Bills Would Cut Income, Excise Taxes "Whitewash" Charge Made By Schwartz

Douglas Says Slashes Will Aid Business

President, Four Economic Aides Hold Conference

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—A variety of tax cuts, one of which would reduce income taxes by $50 a person, was proposed today by Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.).

In all, Douglas offered bills that would reduce individual income taxes 3 to 3½ billion dollars a year and excises by approximately $1,420,000,000.

Douglas proposed the tax cuts as a temporary means of combating the business recession. "The danger point . . . has been reached," he told the Senate.

In other developments bearing on the drop-off of business and employment:

1. President Eisenhower called in four economic advisers for another of a series of White House meetings that have been held in the last two months.

Anderson Attends

The four were Secretary of the Treasury Anderson, Chairman William M. Martin of the Federal Reserve Board, Chairman Raymond J. Saulnier of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, and Dr. Gabriel Hauge, personal economic adviser to the President.

2. The House and Senate completed action on an emergency appropriation of $43,400,000 to replenish unemployment compensation funds for veterans and ex-federal employees. It was estimated money for both these programs would otherwise run out this weekend.

3. Rep. Flood (D-Pa.) introduced legislation to create a public works program covering schools, streets, sidewalks, parks, airports, hospitals, water and sewer facilities, and flood control, navigation and water power facilities.

The federal government would pay 90 per cent of the cost, with the states putting up 10 per cent. Similar legislation has been offered in the Senate by Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.).

Upturn May Be Delayed

4. A panel of economists told the Senate-House Economic Committee that an upturn in business might not come for many months.

Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) and Rep. Boggs (D-La.) asked the economists whether they agreed with a statement O'Mahoney attributed to Secretary of Commerce Weeks that "by election time we'll have prosperity again."

Weeks said on a television show yesterday that he expects an upturn by May or June and "by fall, those Democrats crying about hard times, they'll have to take it back."

Big Fire Rages In Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 10 (AP)—A five-alarm fire raged out of control tonight in a South Side business district crowded with regular Monday night shoppers.

Deputy Fire Chief Clary Ehlers was knocked across a street when an explosion blew down one wall of a store. He was hospitalized with undetermined injuries.

A policeman and 11 civilian firemen were treated at a hospital for smoke inhalation, burns and minor injuries. No one was believed to be in serious condition.

Flames, sparked by a strong northwest wind, whipped 100 feet above the half-block of burning stores. Heavy smoke and near-zero temperatures hampered the efforts of firemen. Water from their hoses froze on the streets and fire trucks and coated the buildings with sheets of ice.

Jordan-Iraq Union Forecast In Amman

Rival Arab Federations Possible

AMMAN, Jordan, Feb. 10 (AP)—The Hashemite Arab kingdoms of Iraq and Jordan seemed headed tonight for federation in a move which could take the Iraqi regime out of the Western-oriented Baghdad Pact.

Sources in Amman, predicting this, indicated a strong possibility that a federation of the two kingdoms might be joined by the Saudi Arabian monarchy.

This would create in the turbulent Middle East a situation in which two separate and possibly rival Arab federations would face one another.

The prediction came in the midst of strong Egyptian-Syrian propaganda for a general Arab federation under the leadership of Egypt, now joined with Syria in the United Arab Republic.

Federation with Iraq likely fore-shadows the beginning of the end of Jordan's existence as a national entity. The little state in the heart of the Arab East long has been teetering on the edge of extinction. In federation with Iraq it would be dominated by Baghdad. Such federation, too, would be counter to Egyptian-Syrian ambitions for the future of Jordan, which Damascus and Cairo view as a historical part of Syria.

Iraq is ruled by young King Faisal II, great grandson of the Arab nationalist hero, Sherif Hussein of Mecca. Jordan is ruled by Faisal's cousin, 22-year-old King Hussein, also a great grandson of Sherif Hussein.

Faisal, accompanied by a retinue of Iraqi officials, is due Tuesday in Amman to talk with Hussein on the future of the two Hashemite countries in the light of the Egyptian-Syrian union, which has produced strong pressures against the two regimes demanding an outward show of all Arab unity.

Jordanian sources suggested the possibility that King Saud of Saudi Arabia would join the federation later. Saud's family once considered itself the blood enemy of the Hashemites, whom the late Ibn Saud drove out of the Hejaz in the Arabian peninsula. But the exigencies of the Arab East's turbulent politics in the past two years have produced a sort of reconciliation between the two families, which eventually saw King Saud supporting Hussein against Egyptian-Syrian pressures.

Iraq, said the informants, may take certain necessary steps to permit the entry of Saudi Arabia. The sources declined to elaborate on just what these steps might be, but they said they "would not be astonished" to see Iraq withdraw from the Baghdad Pact.

Hen Goes All Out To Escape Axe

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 10 (AP)—Gertie, a 2-year-old hen, was scheduled this week to become the ingredient of a dish of chicken and dumplings.

But that was before the spry girl produced four eggs Thursday, two more Friday, and still another on Saturday—a short working day for most everybody.

But Gertie did it — and then crowed like a rooster to celebrate the production feat of the perfectly normal eggs. So Guy Forti, 7, says he'll just keep his one-chicken egg plant.

Aggression Charged

ADEN, Feb. 10 (AP)—Britain today accused Yemen of more direct and open acts of aggression against British-protected sultanates in western Aden. An official communique said the scale and tempo of raids on forts along the frontier had increased.

Rickover Places Teacher Salaries Ahead Of Arms

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—In open-mouthed amazement, a House committee today heard Rear Adm. H. G. Rickover suggest that Congress use defense funds, if necessary, to increase teachers' salaries.

Rickover, father of the atomic submarine and assistant chief of the Navy's Bureau of Nuclear Propulsion, urged a House Education subcommittee to provide federal funds to supplement the salaries of teachers in selected subjects.

Good salaries are needed incentives for good teachers, Rickover asserted. "As a military officer, I'd take money away from the defense establishment for this, if necessary."

Workers Hunt For Water Leak As Plants Close

JERSEY CITY, N.J., Feb. 10 (AP)—City engineers, still baffled by a gigantic break in a water main, managed late today to reduce a water loss which so far has amounted to 16 million gallons.

The underground break at 10:40 p.m. Sunday had poured 1,300,000 gallons hourly into the ground until this afternoon. By mid morning, City Engineer Harold M. Ohland estimated the loss represented a lake three feet deep covering four city blocks.

The loss caused the close of schools and factories and for a time water pressure was so low firemen couldn't have fought a blaze had it occurred.

But by shutting off several control points and stopping industrial water use, the loss of water this afternoon was reduced to 300,000 gallons per hour.

The possibility of cave-ins, fires and explosions last night caused the public works director, August W. Heckman, to declare a state of emergency.

Some 100,000 residents, about a third of the population, found themselves without any water pressure for a time. Later pressure was brought up enough to provide drinking water and a safe level for fighting any fires.

It also lessened the threat of explosions in the heating plants of large apartments and industrial plants.

Deputy Police Chief Joseph B. Foley, the city Civil Defense director, said he is set to evacuate 1,000 residents to the Jersey City armory if the leak is found under any tenement area. National Guard trucks would be used and commercial buses commandeered.

Harry A. O'Meara, president of the Jersey City Chamber of Commerce, said 195 plants, big and small, had closed down to conserve water. They employ 23,500 workers and will remain closed Tuesday unless the leak is found.

Twenty schools also closed, giving some 16,000 pupils a holiday.

Tallulah Bankhead Is Hospital Patient

NEW YORK, Feb. 10 (AP)—Actress Tallulah Bankhead was taken to Lenox Hill Hospital in a private ambulance today. She said she had a possible kidney infection.

Miss Bankhead's doctor earlier had described her ailment as a gynecological condition. He did not define its nature.

Seeks Way To Prevent Bombings

PARIS, Feb. 10 (AP)—French Premier Felix Gaillard, under pressure from the United States and Britain, summoned his Cabinet into special session tonight to consider repercussions of the attack by French warplanes on a Tunisian border village.

Gaillard recalled his president minister in Algeria, Robert Lacoste, to report personally to the Cabinet on the raid Saturday on Sakiet Sidi Youssef near the Algerian border.

The Cabinet was reported ready to take steps to see that military commanders are no longer allowed to stage such raids on their own authority.

Gaillard, the financial wizard who came to the premiership when France was tottering on the brink of economic disaster, now is faced with his biggest diplomatic task.

Viewed As Blunder

The French claim the attack was launched to wipe out Algerian rebels hiding in Tunisian sanctuaries and firing at French observation planes over Algerian territory.

But the venture was being viewed here as a military blunder that pushed France's back to the wall diplomatically.

The Tunisians claim 78 persons killed and 84 wounded as twin-engine bombers unloaded bombs and fighter planes swooped down with machine guns blazing in the hour-long, daylight raid.

Gaillard and Foreign Minister Christian Pineau kept official silence, but three of France's Allies didn't.

The United States officially was profoundly disturbed. Britain said it hoped the situation wouldn't explode into something worse. West Germany voiced concern for the loss of lives.

U. S. Envoy To Investigate

In Washington, the State Department authorized the U.S. ambassador to Tunisia, G. Lewis Jones, to go to Sakiet Sidi Youssef for a first-hand investigation and report. Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba has invited all foreign diplomats in Tunis to visit the bombed village of 2,000 persons.

Most of the 25 planes the French used in the attack were made in the United States. But State Department press officer Lincoln White told reporters in Washington the government had insufficient information on whether the planes were given to France as military aid for defense in the NATO area. He noted France had bought some planes with its own money.

Senators Take France To Task For Air Attack

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—France was denounced in the Senate today for the bombing of Sakiet Sidi Youssef, President Eisenhower asked for a first-hand report on the Tunisian incident.

Seventy-eight persons were reported to have been killed when French warplanes bombed and strafed the Tunisian frontier village Saturday. The French claim the village sheltered Algerian rebels and that their attack was to wipe out an anti-aircraft emplacement that had damaged a French plane.

One point under investigation by U.S. officials was whether American-made aircraft were used in the attack.

Sen. Morse (D-Ore.) called the bombing "a shocking example of misuse of American military aid." In a speech on the Senate floor, he used the incident as a springboard for a sweeping attack on U.S. military aid, declaring it should be limited to "reliable Allies."

Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican floor leader, also took France to task.

"France, by such short-sighted action, will likely not only rally the Arabs of Africa and the Middle East against her but will also alienate public opinion around the world."

New Rights Bill Offered By 16 Solons

Measure Expected To Ignite Another North-South Fight

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—A bipartisan group of 16 senators introduced a new civil rights bill in the Senate today. It may touch off a new North-South fight over racial issues.

Congress struggled for months during the last session before passing the first civil rights legislation in 82 years.

The Eisenhower administration has said it won't sponsor new legislation this year but Atty. Gen. Rogers has indicated the President would sign a bill restoring provisions knocked out of last year's measure.

The new bill, backed by 10 Northern Democrats and 6 Northern Republicans, is designed to encourage racial integration of schools. It would compel compliance with Supreme Court rulings in that field if necessary.

Injunction Provision

Another provision would arm the attorney general with authority to seek federal court injunctions for the protection of civil rights generally. This was one of the provisions cut out of last year's legislation.

Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.), one of the bill's leading supporters, held a news conference to outline the aims of his group.

"We are not going to jockey for party advantage," he said. "We are going to push for enactment of the bill."

Sen. Javits (R-N.Y.), sitting beside Douglas, said he was there as evidence of the bipartisanship. He added that he feels the civil rights bill is needed to improve domestic conditions and strengthen the nation's position in international relations.

Time "Running Out"

Proponents of civil rights legislation, Javits said, are constantly told they should not press for further action at this time, since they gained ground on the issue last year.

"We haven't too much time," he said, when nations around the world "have us under constant observation."

Another sponsor, Sen. Neuberger (D-Ore.), said that in his state thousands of people are concerned with our relations with the people of the Orient and feel that civil rights legislation should set an example of nondiscrimination.

As yet there was no comment from Southern senators, who traditionally line up against civil rights legislation.

Fire Set By Boy Destroys Church

LINDENWOLD, N. J., Feb. 10 (AP)—Fire last night destroyed the St. Lawrence Catholic Church.

Police later arrested a 15-year-old boy who they said admitted starting the fire accidentally. Damage was estimated by church officials at $200,000.

The youngster, John Escobar, Lindenwold, told police he went into the church to look around. He found it dark so he picked up a candle and lit it with a taper. He was carrying the lighted candle and taper into the altar boy's room when he shook the taper and tossed it to the floor, thinking it was out.

He left through a side door and when about a block away saw smoke coming from the church. He ran to a telephone to call in an alarm.

Ice Storm, New Snow Add To Winter's Worst Siege

[By The Associated Press] An ice storm spreading its glaze from the Southern Plains into the Gulf states added Monday to winter's bitterest weather siege for the nation's eastern half.

The frigid slick belt grew eastward from the Texas Panhandle region, across parts of Oklahoma, Louisiana and Mississippi, fed by a mingling of super-chilled air from the North and sodden clouds from the Gulf of Mexico.

Heavy new snow fell in western New York atop choking accumulations from a weekend storm termed by the Weather Bureau the worst in 25 years for Upstate New York.

The Upper Plains and Midwest remained frozen by a cold air mass which dipped temperatures from 5 to 20 below zero for three consecutive days.

FIRE—Bernard Schwartz, shown arriving yesterday for a meeting of the House subcommittee investigating government regulatory agencies, was fired as chief counsel to the subcommittee. Airman Chipper After 24 Hours In Space Cabin

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 10 (AP)—Airman Donald G. Farrell began making space history today feeling bright and chipper.

The young pioneer of space frontiers completed 24 hours in an experimental sealed cabin at the School of Space Medicine at nearby Randolph Air Force Base at 9:35 a.m. today.

"At this point I see no reason why he should not last the full seven days," said Lt. Col. George R. Steinkamp, chief of space medicine at the unique school.

Previously, humans have spent only one day and night in a sealed cabin where they breathe the same air over and over.

Steinkamp said he was confident Farrell, 23, a blond six-footer, would emerge unharmed at 9:33 a.m. next Sunday.

"He may even gain some weight the way he is eating now," the chief aero-medical expert said.

"This test was designed to test both the man and our machines," he said. "Both are working extremely well."

Steinkamp told a news conference this morning that many of the intricate instruments being used to measure Farrell's reactions and physical condition were so secret they could not even be named.

At another press briefing Tuesday, Dr. George T. Hauty, space medicine psychologist, and Capt. Julian E. Ward, deputy chief of the space medicine department, will report on other angles of Farrell's test.

Steinkamp said the tests given Farrell in the space chamber are problems similar to those that would face a crewman of an actual space ship. Farrell has a panel of switches and buttons facing him in the chamber and a duplicate set is in the hands of the scientists clustered outside. A question can be asked by flipping a switch and Farrell can answer it by flipping another switch. He cannot see outside and the scientists see Farrell only through a small television camera inside the space cabin. A battery of movie cameras, both color and black and white, record all his movements.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—Bernard Schwartz was fired tonight as chief counsel to a House subcommittee after charging most committee members wanted to whitewash his investigation involving President Eisenhower's chief aide, Sherman Adams, and other high officials.

The subcommittee's action came shortly after 7:30 p.m. after a long day of angry wrangling between Schwartz and the House group headed by Rep. Moulder (D-Mo.).

Moulder announced the group's investigation of the Federal Communications Commission and five other regulatory agencies will continue tomorrow—behind closed doors and with Schwartz subpoenaed as a witness.

Shortly before the announcement of his dismissal Schwartz said the committee had "grilled" him for three hours and subjected him to untrue accusations.

Accused Of Being "Liar"

One of the latter, he said, was that he was a "contemptible liar." "The majority of the committee was interested in a whitewash," Schwartz, a 34-year-old law professor on leave from New York University, told reporters.

Moulder said the 11-member subcommittee voted that Schwartz's services be ended "immediately as his usefulness to the committee and its investigation has ceased."

Moulder said the vote was 7-4. Earlier in the day, the subcommittee voted 6-5 against firing Schwartz.

Then this afternoon the committee held an ultra-secret 3½-hour session after which it was reported Schwartz still held onto his post.

Schwartz had said before the session he expected to lose his job because, as he put it, he had been digging too deep for evidence of official misconduct.

Senate Probe Demanded

While the House committee met, demands were raised in the Senate for it to make its own probe, if the House group doesn't get ahead with its investigation.

Also, Sen. Carroll (D-Colo.) said the White House has a responsibility of its own to take action.

Schwartz has said previously that subcommittee members tried to put a roadblock in his way when he investigated the operations of the "Big Six" independent agencies which regulate such things as television broadcasting, stock exchange transactions and railroad rates.

Chairman Harris (D-Ark.) of the House Commerce Committee — parent group of the investigating subcommittee — has called for Schwartz's removal, accusing him of putting in camouflaged expense accounts to the government.

School Board May Reinstall Troublemakers

NEW YORK, Feb. 10 (AP)—The Board of Education today held out hope of reinstatement to some of 644 public school students suspended as trouble makers in last week's classroom purge. All will get hearings.

After an emergency City Hall conference, an announcement said the Board of Education did not rule out the possibility that some of the cases presently under suspension might be returned to the regular school.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner, meanwhile, scheduled a Wednesday conference with Gov. Averell Harriman on additional institutions for incorrigibles among the city's nearly one million public school students.

Harriman said yesterday he is willing to work with the city in a "crash" program against lawlessness in the city schools.

A growing wave of rape, assault, knife and vandalism in or around city schools led to last week's crackdown on known trouble makers. Both white and Negro students have been involved in the delinquency, which has been limited to a small percentage of the public school student body.

Teamsters' Board Scans Investments

Hoffa Says Beck To Attend Meeting

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 10 (AP)—Teamsters Union bosses got to work today unraveling some of the complicated investments of the big union's funds previously engineered by Dave Beck, former president.

James R. Hoffa, Beck's successor as president of the 1,400,000 member union, said the opening session of the Teamster's Executive Board was largely occupied with examining union funds investments.

Beck had tied up most of the union's 41 million-dollar assets in long-term mortgages and other investments and was proud of the interest yield. The only trouble is this left the union with relatively few liquid assets.

New Teamsters reportedly are faced with a prospect of selling some of the investments at a loss or borrowing against them at high rates.

Hoffa said Beck is due here to report on a number of unfinished problems harking back to his incumbency as top Teamster Boss. Other Teamster sources said Beck apparently has changed his mind about coming.

But it was reported Beck, now on a $50,000 annual union pension, wanted to be here to plead to retain certain union prerogatives, including use of a $163,000 Seattle home he got the Teamsters to buy from him several years ago.

Beck and Hoffa both were subject to criticism in Senate Rackets Investigating Committee hearings last year for alleged misuse of vast sums of Teamster's money and union powers. Disclosures led to the union's expulsion from the AFL-CIO last December.

Just as the AFL-CIO last week made it clear it plans no immediate inter-union warfare against the ousted Teamsters, Hoffa said this, too, is the policy of the trucking union.

"We intend to cooperate as we have in the past with all unions that want to cooperate with us," said Hoffa.

Negro Elected Leader Of N.Y. Church Council

NEW YORK, Feb. 10 (AP)—A Negro clergyman, for the first time, tonight was named president of New York City's Protestant Council. He called the step symbolic of the essential unity of all Christians.

The Rev. Dr. Gardner C. Taylor, 39, pastor of Brooklyn's 10,200-member Concord Baptist Church of Christ, was elected at the council's 14th General Assembly.

He told the assembly he felt a "high sense of honor and a deep almost painful sense of humility" that "my colleagues in our evangelical faith have leapt the chasms of color and creed to lay hands on me."

"I am black and am the first black man ever elected to the titular leadership of our great Protestant Council."

This, he said, expressed symbolically that "beneath our superficial and external differences of complexion and culture, we have an essential unity, a basic and fundamental 'alikehood' in Christ Jesus."

The council represents about 1,700 churches of 31 denominations with approximately 600,000 members throughout the city.

A leader in the American-Northern-Baptist Convention, Dr. Taylor also is the first Baptist ever chosen to the city's top Protestant office.

He succeeds the Rev. Philip P. Elliott, pastor of Brooklyn's First Presbyterian Church.

Born in Baton Rouge, La., Dr. Taylor previously served as pastor of the Bethany Baptist Church of Elyria, Ohio, the Beulah Baptist Church of New Orleans, and the Mt. Zion Baptist Church of Baton Rouge.

He took over the pulpit of the big Brooklyn church 11 years ago. In 1932, it was destroyed by fire. He led the interracial congregation in building a new church structure, completed in 1956 at a cost of nearly 1½ million dollars.

Vending Stands Operated By Blind Now Big Business

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—These vending stands operated by blind persons in public and business buildings now represent a 30 million dollar a year business.

The Department of Health, Education and Welfare said today this amount represents a 32 percent increase over a three-year period. In this period, the number of blind operators and their assistants increased from 1,931 to 2,249, and the number of stands from 1,599 to 1,830.

State rehabilitation agencies have been setting up the businesses under the state-federal program of vocational rehabilitation.

Woman Gets 3 Years For Hospital Theft

BALTIMORE, Feb. 10 (AP)—A woman who formerly worked at City Hospitals as a cashier was sentenced to three years today for wrongfully taking $1,488.

Mrs. Elizabeth N. Sands, 53, who was convicted Dec. 30 of stealing money from the city, will serve her term in the Reformatory for Women.

Mrs. Sands collapsed on Judge S. Ralph Warnken handed down the sentence in Criminal Court. Her attorney, Alan H. Murrell, grabbed her before she fell to the floor.

The indictment last October followed a three-month audit and charged the woman embezzled or stole nearly $5,000. But Prosecutor John A. O'Connor Jr., said it would require 40 extra witnesses to bring out evidence to cover the entire amount.

Six Negroes Appeal Trespass Sentences

GREENSBORO, N.C., Feb. 10 (AP)—Six Negroes convicted last Friday of trespassing on a golf course for white people were sentenced today to 15-day jail terms. All six entered notice of appeal to the North Carolina Supreme Court.

The six indicated through counsel that they will continue contesting the charge until some court rules with them.

The notices of appeal were filed after Superior Court Judge George M. Fountain of Tarboro had passed sentence.

It was the second time that the defendants had been convicted of trespassing on Gillespie Park golf course in December of 1953.

Taxing of whisky began with the passage of an excise law in 1791.

Navy Unveils RAT, Menace To Enemy Subs

PASADENA, Calif., Feb. 10 (AP)—A deadly new weapon—part rocket, part torpedo and all menace to an enemy submarine—was displayed today by the U.S. Navy.

They call it the RAT, for rocket-assisted torpedo, and claim it does for antisub warfare what the development of artillery did for ground warfare.

A RAT-equipped destroyer can splinter a submarine miles away, without ever leaving the convoy it guards. The RAT is fired into the air and lowered into the target area by parachute. Once in the water it automatically seeks out and destroys its target.

The Navy said it should go a long way toward neutralizing Russia's submarine threat.

Painted bright red, with a shiny black nose cap, the new weapon was a picture of deadly beauty as it was unveiled today at the naval ordnance test station where it was developed.

Although much about it is secret, the Navy showed films of firings off the coast of California that gave a dramatic glimpse of its performance.

It is fired from a launcher that can be built on to a destroyer's existing 5-inch gun mounts. Trailing flames from its rocket engine, it streaks off—20 feet and 450 pounds of trouble for the sub that has been detected in the area by the ship's sound equipment.

At a point predetermined by the firing mechanism, the rocket engine and the air frame hugging it to the torpedo fall away and a parachute opens to ease the weapon's entrance into the water.

The black plastic nose cap that gives RAT the proper shape for its flight through the air, shatters on impact with the water, the parachute falls away and an eight-foot torpedo with a homing device is left to search out the sub and destroy it.

The Navy wouldn't say what RAT's range is, either through the air or in the water; how long it can keep up its search, what kind of a homing device guides it in the water or what kind of a warhead it packs.

Mahoney Claims He's 'Best Qualified Man'

FREDERICK, Feb. 10 (AP)—Senate candidate George P. Mahoney said tonight he is the best qualified man to help lead the Democrats to victory this year.

"Let's give Millard Tawes and all the other Democratic nominees a Senate candidate who will help them and not hurt them," Mahoney told some 200 members of the Jeffersonian Democratic Club.

"I am the only Senate candidate who can win the general election. If you doubt that statement, ask your Republican friends who they're most afraid of. You know without asking what the answer will be—it's Mahoney."

U.S. To Observe Soviet Elections

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—The State Department today announced that a political scientist, a historian and a journalist will form the U. S. observer team watching the Soviet Union's one-party elections next month.

The visit is in exchange for the trip made to the United States by a Soviet delegation during the 1956 presidential election.

The U. S. observer group will include:

Richard Scammon, political scientist and chief of the political elections section of the Governmental Affairs Institute;

Cyril Edwin Black, author and Professor of history at Princeton University; and Hedley Williams Donovan, managing editor of Fortune magazine. The announcement said this trio will leave about March 1 and return shortly after the March 16 elections.

The balloting will choose members of the Supreme Soviet—parliament. As usual, Communist party leaders will have already have selected the candidates on the single ticket.

Ultimatum To Be Handed Sukarno

The broadcast said the ultimatum was issued by Col. Achmad Hussein, military commander in central Sumatra and head of the rebel Banteng Council.

If the terms are not met, he said, "we will declare ourselves free from the obligation to obey President Sukarno."

Previously, Col. Aludin Simbolon, coordinator of outer island protest groups, declared Sukarno was dragging Indonesia gradually into the Communist bloc.

He charged the president, who is now in Japan on a foreign tour, had gone to buy arms "in order to enable the Djakarta government to bring more military pressure on defiant outer regions."

The rebels' declaration stopped short of proclaiming a separate government. It emphasized their purpose to unite the nation, not split it.

Two British musicians' unions were asked about reports they plan to protest Steinberg's appointment. General Secretary Hardie Ratcliffe of the British Musicians' Union said "We have no objection to Steinberg individually and have not considered the matter yet." The Incorporated Society of Musicians said it will consider the Steinberg appointment later.

Maryland Traffic Death Toll For '58 Soars To 53

(By The Associated Press)

Maryland's death toll from highway accidents soared to 53 Monday, eight more than the total killed in auto accidents for the same period last year and including 10 who died over the weekend.

Non-traffic accidents accounted for five more deaths during the weekend and Monday—four as a result of fires and one by sledding.

The latest highway victim was Ernest Lee Farr, 33, York, Ala., who was killed early Monday on U.S. 15 in Frederick County after he apparently fell asleep and his tractor-trailer rig slammed into a stone house.

Raymond Shuff, his wife and two children, who were asleep in the house at Catoctin Furnace, escaped injury.

The sledding accident also happened in Frederick County.

Nine-year-old James C. Horine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Lee Horine of Meyersville, was fatally injured Sunday when his sled smacked into a drainage culvert. He died Monday in Frederick Memorial Hospital.

John Bowens, 60, Negro, also died in Frederick Monday of burns suffered when his clothing caught fire.

Burns suffered more than a month ago snuffed out the lives of two persons: 7-year-old Mary Ellen Young of Baltimore who died Sunday of burns suffered while playing with matches Jan. 1, and Mrs. Mary Proctor, 20, of Huntville, Md., who died in Prince Georges Hospital at Hyattsville of burns suffered 45 days ago when a heater in her home set fire to her dress.

The fourth fire victim was 2-year-old Francis Louise Peach who burned to death Saturday in a blaze which destroyed her family's one-room home near Gaithersburg.

State Sen. Northrop To Seek Re-Election

ROCKVILLE, Md., Feb. 10 (AP)—State Sen. Edward S. Northrop (D-Montgomery) who had been mentioned earlier as a possible candidate for attorney general or governor, said today he will seek re-election to the Senate.

The 46-year-old Chevy Chase lawyer heads up a legislative committee which has made detailed studies of State fiscal matters. He is winding up his first four-year term in the Senate.

Forged Check Passer Nabbed

WINCHESTER, Va., Feb. 10 (AP)—Police said today a 21-year-old Negro arrested here Saturday has admitted passing forged checks in Hagerstown, Md., Washington, D.C., and Winchester.

Police Capt. F. M. Funk said the man also admitted he was implicated in the theft of a safe from the Charlestown (W. Va.) Finance Co. Inc. in mid-January.

Funk identified the man as Enoch Baptist Ford of Front Royal. He said Ford was arrested Saturday in a local jewelry store.

In Ford's car, parked on a local parking lot, police found clothing allegedly purchased with a forged $2,000—allegedly inside the safe when it was stolen had been recovered from the car.

Ford was being held in the local jail under $5,000 bond. Local officers were to decide today whether to keep him here to face trial on one count of forging a check and one of placing a forged check into circulation or whether to turn him over to West Virginia authorities.

Farmer Accused On Game Charge

BALTIMORE, Feb. 10 (AP)—A Kent County farmer was charged today with aiding and abetting two geese hunters accused of violating federal game laws.

The criminal prosecution against Roland R. Corey, 63, Chestertown farmer and dairyman, was believed to be the first such action brought in this district against the owner or lessee of property on which a federal game violation occurred.

It stems from the arrest on Corey's farm last November of two hunters charged with hunting geese over live decoys in violation of federal law. These cases are pending in Federal Court.

John G. Underwood, assistant U. S. attorney, said the charge against Corey was brought under a section of the federal criminal code making it unlawful for a person to aid, abet or counsel another person in the commission of a crime.

Too Many Clothes Prove Fatal To Man

FREDERICK, Md., Feb. 10 (AP)—Because of the bitter cold weather 60-year-old Frank Bowens put on long underwear, two pairs of trousers and some other extra clothing to get ready for work today.

Then the Negro man backed up to a stove to warm himself.

The clothing caught fire and Bowens was unable to get it off in time. Firemen arrived and doused him with water.

Bowens died later at Frederick Memorial Hospital, where his wife is a patient.

Fairchild Aircraft Reports 500 Laid Off

HAGERSTOWN, Feb. 10 (AP)—Fairchild Aircraft Division announced today it has laid off 500 employees because of military contract stretchouts and reprogramming.

Richard L. Boutelle, president, said more than 2,500 workers were transferred from military to commercial projects and there was no alternative but to lay off the 500.

He said Fairchild's total work force of 8,150 is still more than 100 above the total at this time last year.

Copper is one of the oldest metals known. Although it is relatively soft, it is durable.

Two Huge Graders To Leave Baltimore

BALTIMORE, Feb. 10 (AP)—Two of the largest road graders ever exported from the United States will be loaded here tomorrow for shipment to Durban, South Africa.

Each grader weighs 40,000 pounds and has a cubic measurement of 1,900 feet. They were built to specification by the Galion Iron Works, Galion, Ohio, for the South African Railways and Harbors agency.

The S. S. Vergelegen will take the graders to Africa.

Coca Cola Official Dies

BALTIMORE, Feb. 10 (AP)—Samuel L. Willard, who took charge of the Coca Cola Co.'s production at the age of 21, died yesterday at his Baltimore home.

The former Coca Cola Co. vice president was a nephew of Asa G. Candler, one of the founders of the company. He retired from the firm in 1928.

Officially speaking, the United States consists of 44 states and four commonwealths. The commonwealths are Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Virginia and Kentucky.

Hot Rodder Not Welcome

HYATTSVILLE, Md., Feb. 10 (AP)—A 16-year-old Washington boy was banned from Prince Georges County today as a condition of probation for endangering a policeman in reckless hot-rodging.

Juvenile Court Judge Emmett H. Nanna Jr., told the youth not to enter the county except to report to his probation officer.

"You've worn out your welcome here as far as our police are concerned," he said.

Terms of the boy's probation also include surrender of his driver's permit and agreement not even to ride in any car but his father's and then only when his parent is driving.

County Police Sgt. Carlton Wenzel testified the boy nearly hit him as he sped out of a drive-in restaurant Jan. 24. He said the boy ignored four shouts to stop.

Memorial Mass For Lost Airman

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—A memorial mass will be said tomorrow at the Ft. Myer, Va., chapel for Brig. Gen. Charles D. Jones, who vanished with his jet bomber over Chesapeake Bay Jan. 25.

Jones and Maj. Jeff H. Gifford Jr., were returning from Jackson, Miss., and were within a few miles of Andrews Air Force Base, Md., when they disappeared. An intensive search of the Chesapeake area was carried out with no success.

Jones is survived by his wife, Mrs. Dorothea E. Jones, Arlington, Va.

A surface search for the twin engine bomber has been discontinued, an Air Force spokesman said today. He added that some diving operations will be carried on later.

New Vatican Stamps

VATICAN CITY, Feb. 10 (AP)—A new series of stamps will be issued by the Vatican post office Feb. 21 to commemorate the Centenary of Lourdes.

The stamps will be in six denominations and will show an image of the Virgin Mary, the Grotto at Lourdes and St. Bernadette.

Demo 'Harmony' Slate Endorsed

WALDORF, Md., Feb. 10 (AP)—Sixty-five Democratic party leaders in Charles County, including a majority of the County Democratic Committee, today endorsed the "harmony" slate for the state's top elective offices.

All four office seekers met with a cross section of the county's Democrats. They were Comptroller J. Millard Tawes, running for the gubernatorial nomination; Baltimore Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro, U.S. Senate candidate; State Sen. Louis Goldstein, aspirant for the comptroller's office, and Atty. Gen. C. Ferdinand Sybert, candidate for re-election.

The Charles County Democrats described the four as candidates "of proven ability, experience, honesty and devotion to office." They predicted the "unity ticket" would bring the Democratic victory in the elections this year.

The four candidates spoke to the gathering, which also included a speech by Rudolph A. Carrio, member of the County Democratic Committee.

Easton-Talbot C Of C Fights Sales Tax Hike

EASTON, Md., Feb. 10 (AP)—The Easton-Talbot County Chamber of Commerce said today it will fight any increase in the Maryland sales tax.

President Charles P. Howard said Talbot merchants already are losing business to Delaware because of the Maryland tax.

Howard said he hoped other communities along the Eastern Shore would join the chamber in opposing a sales tax boost. Gov. McKeldin has proposed a 50 per cent hike to help finance the budget.

Gov. McKeldin Cancels Dinner Date Due To Flu

ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 10 (AP)—Gov. McKeldin, fighting a bout with the flu, kept office appointments today but had to cancel an engagement for a Lincoln Day dinner in Baltimore County tonight.

The governor was to serve as toastmaster for the affair. He sent a copy of his speech to be read. He was stricken with flu last Friday and spent all weekend in bed.

Candidate Finds His Questions Embarrassing

BALTIMORE, Feb. 10 (AP)—Nor-man A. Labovitz, who is seeking added that he has stopped asking Republican nomination to Congress, said today he has become embarrassed asking people "I only ask now on buses and in supermarkets and other public places," he said.

Labovitz said only about 1 out of 30 persons he asked knew which district they live in and the name of their congressman.

Of 14,610 he says he asked, those who answered both questions numbered 590. Those who could answer only one of the questions totaled 637.

Rembrandt and Mozart were the toast of the town as young men, were buried in pauper's graves and today are immortal.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

W.Va. Auditor Ordered To Justify Salary Refusal

CHARLESTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—The State Auditor Edgar B. Sims was directed by the Supreme Court today to appear April 22 and show why he should not honor the payment of $2,104 back salary to a state employee.

The court action came in the efforts of Mrs. Margaret G. Lippert of Charleston to collect salary she says is due for a period from April 16 to Nov. 30, 1957. The Department of Public Assistance, where Mrs. Lippert is employed, submitted a payroll requirement for that amount but Sims refused to pay it.

After an Attorney General's memorandum upholding Sims, Mrs. Lippert's counsel asked the Supreme Court for an order to compel Sims to pay the sum.

Mrs. Lippert was dismissed from the DPA on April 16 after an investigation of the disappearance of three checks aggregating $89. She was later cleared of charges by a justice of the peace and the grand jury failed to indict her.

The Merit System Council upheld Mrs. Lippert's appeal for reinstatement. She finally was reinstated to a comparable post last Nov. 15.

Road Commissioner Patrick C. Graney likewise was directed to appear April 22 to show cause why he should not institute condemnation proceedings in Brooke County Circuit Court to establish compensation for land a couple contends was taken for road purposes.

Interior Dept. Expects $1,045,000 For U. Of Md. Buildings

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—The Interior Department said today that Maryland should pay $1,045,000 for the existing buildings on a 14-acre federally owned portion of the University of Maryland campus if the land is transferred to the university.

Under Secretary Hatfield Chilson reported to Congress the department would recommend approval of pending legislation to transfer the land provided such payment is required.

Chilson said replacement facilities will have to be provided to the State Insurance Department said house the units of the Fish and Wildlife Service and Bureau of Mines now using the existing buildings. He said these buildings Thursday have been appraised at $1,045,000 because Lincoln's birthday falls on the latter date.

of Mines laboratory to a more better designed buildings at more appropriate locations."

Chilson said the budget bureau had no objection to the department's report but "in view of the current budgetary situation no commitment can be made as to when a budget estimate would be submitted if the bill is enacted."

Italy Accedes

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Feb. 10 (AP)—Italy has become the 38th government to accede to an agreement exempting the United Nations from taxation and its officials from arrest on national territory.

The earth rotates at a speed of about one thousand miles an hour at the equator.

Game, Birds Hurt By Winter Weather

The cold weather and snow which has brought discomfort to residents of the area has also made life miserable for wildlife and song birds.

Regional Game Warden Joseph A. Minke said he has received numerous inquiries from persons wishing to feed song birds.

A good suggestion one man made was for housewives to salvage food scraps such as bread and the fat from meals to use in feeding the birds.

State bread could also be obtained from bakeries and grocery stores at little cost and this would be of great help in feeding song birds, Minke added.

Minke said the State Game and Inland Fish Commission is worried over the fate of wild turkeys which has been feeding grain to more than 30 coveys of quail which have been located in the county. Game officials have been setting out cob corn and other grains for turkeys, quail and deer in Allegany County, particularly on Green Ridge State Forest, since January 1. Quail have been faring better than expected, despite the extremely bad weather, Minke said.

Rabbits and squirrels are not affected so much by the cold, snowy weather.

Beer Permit Revoked

CHARLESTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—The State Beer Commission revoked today, with forfeiture of bond, the permit held by Alex Walker Knights of Pythias No. 202 at Bluefield.

The organization was charged with illegal possession, consumption and sale of liquor on the premises and with permitting disorderly conduct.

China Reds Disturbed

TOKYO, Feb. 10 (AP)—The Chinese Communists are reported disturbed over some pamphlets distributed at a Japanese trade fair in Canton.

Kyodo News Service said the Chinese didn't like it because the pamphlets showed a picture of a train bearing U.S. and Nationalist Chinese flags and used the word Manchukuo, Japan's name for its puppet state of pre-World War II Manchuria.

The Isle of Man, in the Irish sea, has an area of 221 square miles.

One-third of the surface of New Zealand is not suitable for farming.

Protect your budget and you protect those plans for the future

Blue Cross protection is basic to your budget planning

MOST parents dream of the day when they will stand with their sons and daughters on a university campus on graduation day. And most of them know, too, that it will take close budgeting and careful saving to make that dream come true. They realize that the unexpected can delay—yes, even cancel—their plans. That's why so many parents protect their planning by pre-paying for hospital care by making Blue Cross an essential part of their budget.

The heart of Blue Cross is hospital care. That means flexible benefits to meet your individual hospital needs ... not fixed dollar allowances. Blue Cross pays the member hospital directly for the services covered by your membership. No claims to fill out ... no waiting for reimbursement. Simply show your Blue Cross membership card upon admission to any of the 40 Maryland Member Hospitals.

If you move from Maryland, remember, you may transfer your Blue Cross membership to the plan serving your new location. And when you travel, Blue Cross travels with you, providing protection away from home.

How do you join? Most people enroll where they work. Ask your employer, or call the Blue Cross office listed in your telephone directory.

Council Appoints Hite Police Sergeant

E. Gordon Hite has been appointed sergeant in the Police Department effective yesterday. Hite, who has been a police detective, led the recent Civil Service examination for the post, was recommended by Police and Fire Commissioner William V. Keegan and appointed by the Mayor and Council. His salary will be $314.50 a month. Keegan said Hite fills a sergeant vacancy in the department.

In other action, council named Mrs. Bettie A. Williams as police woman at a salary of $260 a month effective February 3; and Mrs. Margaret Sisk as police clerk at a salary of $212 a month effective February 5.

On another matter, council approved a cost report of City Engineer C. L. Nuzum for curbing, guttering or otherwise

W.Va. Has Balance Of $3,484,041

CHARLESTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—The state's general revenue fund showed a balance of $3,484,047 as of Jan. 31, Treasurer Orel J. Skeen's monthly financial statement showed today.

The treasury's over-all cash total of $48,915,763 compared with $51,407,138 at the end of December.

Investments amounted to $173,820,722 at the end of January; securities in safe keeping totaled $84,636,900, and liabilities were $129,061,000.

The liabilities included $70,811,000 worth of state road bonds; $50,100,000 in World War I and II veterans bonus bonds; and $7,150,000 in Korean bonus bonds.

Other fund balances included special revenue, $22,020,237; state road fund, $3,318,772; public assistance, $5,774,929; and workmen's compensation, $4,096,310.

Removal Of Parking Meters Is Sought

The Down Town Parking Corporation has asked that parking meters in front of the proposed commercial parking lot on Union Street be removed.

The Mayor and Council referred the letter to Police and Fire Commissioner William V. Keegan with power to act.

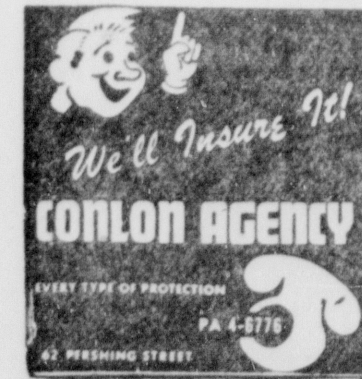

Simon Rosenbaum, corporation president, said the lot to be located on property formerly occupied by the Merchant Wholesale and Tri-State Electrical buildings, will hold 70 cars. He said the meters would hamper customer parking, block the driveway and make it difficult for customers to turn in to the lot.

Directors Of Lions Meet This Evening

The Board of Directors of the Cumberland Lions Club will meet today at 7:30 p. m. at Central YMCA.

Action will be taken on a recommendation from the Special Projects Committee to assist the Salvation Army in buying equipment for a woodworking shop.

The regular club meeting will be held at 12:15 p. m. at Central YMCA.

Water Pipe Bids Sought

Water Commissioner William J. Edwards has been authorized to advertise for bids for 8, 10 and 12-inch cast iron pipe and accessories for a proposed water line improvement in South End.

The Mayor and Council authorized the move yesterday. Originally the plan called for 12-inch pipe only but was amended when City Auditor Arthur B. Gibson raised the question of cost and necessity for that large a line.

Earlier, City Engineer Charles R. Nuzum had said the 12-inch was desirable because the present four-inch line was inadequate, better fire protection would be provided and fluctuating pressure would be eliminated; impending Industrial Boulevard construction should increase industrial and domestic building; and an eight-inch line while taking care of present needs might not meet future demands.

Both Lakes Full

Lake Gordon is three inches above the crest of the spillway and Lake Koon two inches above, C. L. Brotemarkle, assistant superintendent of Evitts Creek Water Company, reported yesterday. Consumption for the week ending yesterday was 78,500,000 gallons compared to 84,330,000 the same period a year ago.

Resolution Is Planned

The Mayor and Council acted yesterday to prepare a resolution of respect to the memory of Isaac Birch, "father" of the commissioner form of government, who died Saturday.

Reiter and Mrs. Evelyn Kathleen Driver.

Among questions asked were the time allowed to pay, why trees in the 700 block were allowed to stand and the improvement built around them; and why the city waited 15 years to make the improvement with the result that cost is higher.

Street Commissioner William H. Buchholtz said property owners in the 700 block did not want trees removed.

When asked by Commissioner John J. Long if any one had protested the street improvement before, Buchholtz said only Mrs. Evelyn Driver. Buchholtz said if more than 50 per cent had requested that the project not be done, it would have been passed over. He said two ordinances were passed by council and no one came to protest.

Buchholtz pointed out that maintenance cost on Memorial Avenue has far exceeded the cost of the paving over the years and had reached the point where it had to be paved.

Racial Integration In Local Business Places Discussed

The Mayor and Council indicated yesterday it would approach the Chamber of Commerce to work out racial integration in business places.

The suggestion was made by Rev. G. T. C. Bell, pastor of McKendree Methodist Church, who appeared together with a group which had asked council in December to seek integration in theatres and restaurants of the city.

Mayor Roy W. Eves told Mr. Bell at the conclusion of a lengthy discussion at yesterday's session that the plan appeared to be sensible and a good step forward. The group also included Mada E. Topson, 344 Central Avenue, Rev. Charles E. Walden, pastor of Metropolitan AME Church, and Rabbi Stanley Levin, 3 Altamont Terrace.

Mr. Bell said his group was not demanding anything but was merely requesting that something be done. He said he believes the Chamber of Commerce would be the best source to work out integration of certain places since it has representatives from every branch of business in town.

Rabbi Levin said he believes council has power to pass an ordinance opening restaurants and theatres to all and said it should go on record favoring the ordinance and work out details later. He said council should not "beat around the bush."

Street Commissioner William H. Buchholtz told Mr. Bell he is in sympathy with his feelings but took exception to what he called "racial tones" in Rabbi Levin's presentation and felt council was being told "you either do such and such or else."

misunderstood and asked that the street commissioner not project his feelings into his (Levin's) remarks.

Earlier, Finance Commissioner John J. Long said it was "democracy" in suggesting council sit down with theatre and restaurant owners and talk over the situation here.

City Attorney Thomas B. Finan pointed out at the outset of the discussion that the state has no omnibus civil rights bill but the city has gone along with integration in situations where it has actual control.

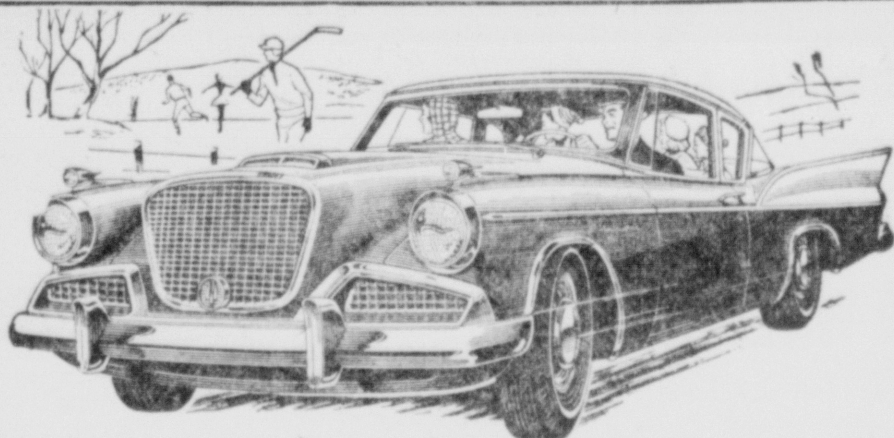

Finan pointed out that a statewide law had been introduced in the previous General Assembly

ONE OF MARYLAND'S LARGEST PRESCRIPTION PHARMACIES

A Pharmacist's careful records may suddenly become important in wholly unexpected ways. Suppose a child swallows a handful of tablets from an old forgotten bottle, are the tablets harmless or dangerous? If there is a prescription number on the bottle label, a call to the drug store that dispensed the tablets, many years before, will instantly give the identity of the tablets and ascertain whether or not emergency treatment is indicated. The pharmacist needs a little of your time when filling your prescription to keep his record accurate. Walsh-McCagh prescription files date back to 1898 which indicate the thoroughness and care given to every prescription filled by our pharmacists. It's a reassuring feeling to know at our Pharmacy you get the best pharmaceutical care for your prescription. Why not find out for yourself.

County Voter List Continues Slight Decline

36,073 Counted At Month's End

Allegany County has 36,073 registered voters as of January 31 as another slight decrease in the number of voters was recorded again last month by the County Board of Election Supervisors.

There were 36 new registrants during January but the names of 82 other voters were deleted, leaving a net loss of 46 for the month.

Names of 80 voters who died were dropped from the rolls. These were former local residents who had moved away and their deaths are reported annually by the State Health Department. Two other names were removed at the request of the voters so they might register elsewhere.

The 80 deceased voters, whose names were removed from the books, included 41 Republicans and 39 Democrats. Those removed by request included one Republican and one Democrat.

Among the 36,073 registered voters at the end of the month were 35,731 white persons and 342 Negroes.

The registered voters included 29,555 Republicans (19,406 men and 10,149 women), 15,265 Democrats (7,886 men and 7,379 women), 241 independents (173 men and 68 women) who declined to list political affiliation; 10 Socialists (six men and four women); and two members of other parties, one man and one woman.

Prospective new voters may register any week day from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. at the office of the Board of Election Supervisors in the Court House basement or between 9 a.m. and noon on Saturday. Sometime before the registration books are closed 30 days before the May 20 primary election, registrars will visit most communities around the county to add new voters.

Local Student Gets Degree In History

Delyle L. Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Henry, 13 Boone Street, received his MA degree in history Saturday during convocation exercises at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. His parents attended the exercises.

A graduate of Fort Hill High School, he received his BA degree from Eastern Nazarene College, Wollaston, Mass., in 1956. He also studied at Boston University and plans to further his education.

Court House Will Observe Holiday

The Allegany County Court House will be closed all day tomorrow in observance of the anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's birthday.

February 12 is one of 13 legal holidays for state and county employees during the year. Two of them fall during February, the shortest month of the year. Saturday, February 22, the Court House will be closed again all day in observance of the birthday of George Washington.

Over 5,000 Urge Action On Route 40

Copies of five resolutions urging immediate action on reconstruction of all of US Route 40 between Cumberland and Hancock were forwarded to all members of the General Assembly yesterday, according to Edward Habeeb, spokesman for the US Route 40 Association.

The resolutions had been unanimously adopted at membership meetings of five local organizations. Mr. Habeeb said. The organizations represent a total membership of over 5,000 men, he noted.

Resolutions urging action immediately on constructing Route 40, between Hancock and Cumberland, were passed by Cumberland Aerie No. 245, Fraternal Order of Eagles; Cumberland Lodge No. 63, BPO Elks; Cumberland Council No. 586, Knights of Columbus; Cumberland Lodge No. 271, Loyal Order of Moose; and Henry Hart Post No. 1411, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Mr. Habeeb said several other local organizations have expressed interest in the proposal and several have requested copies of the resolutions.

The resolutions note that this roadway is one of the most heavily traveled in the state, is over mountainous terrain, and represents the only major link between Western Maryland and Baltimore and Washington.

The Route 40 Association has been assured by members of the Allegany County delegation to the General Assembly that the delegates are in favor of action to move the entire project ahead on the state's 15-year road rebuilding program, so that the work can be started this year.

One hundred copies of each of the five resolutions went to Annapolis, with a set of each directed to each state senator and each member of the House of Delegates.

The Route 40 Association met last night at Central YMCA and expressed appreciation for the support given the idea by so many interested citizens.

Group Is Named To Study Plan For Incinerator

A petition protesting the location of a B&O incinerator at Offutt Street and Virginia Avenue was referred yesterday morning to City Engineer C. R. Nuzum, Police Commissioner William V. Keegan and Street Commissioner William H. Buchholtz.

The petition was submitted by Mrs. Mary Keys, 923 Virginia Avenue, and bore 119 signatures. Signers asked that the incinerator be moved to another location, saying it would be a health hazard in that location.

Yesterday afternoon, two members of the B&O's engineering department visited City Hall to contact Mr. Nuzum on plans for the device, according to Mayor Roy W. Eves.

He said they asked if they could bring a representative of the firm which makes the incinerator here to discuss its operation and safety features with the committee.

Mayor Eves said the incinerator proposed would use gas to burn the waste B&O oil without smoke and added it would be as safe and tight as furnaces used to heat homes.

Fire Chief Virgil A. Parker has protested the location of the oil burning device, saying it was too close to several tanks.

Mayor Eves says the tanks are used to store journal bearing oil

Pumping Stations Put Through Paces

The Ridgeley and Mill Race pumping stations have passed their first operational test, according to Street Commissioner William H. Buchholtz.

The powerful pumps at both stations were run for two hours Sunday afternoon to make sure they were in top operating condition.

City Engineer C. R. Nuzum, flood control liaison engineer for the city, said all of the motors, pumps and controls were found satisfactory.

The pumping stations will be used to lift surface water over flood walls and levees when water in Wills Creek or the Potomac River prevents surface water from flowing into the streams by gravity.

Similar tests will be made each 30 days to make sure the units are in good running condition. They will be made during off-peak hours in the interest of lower power rates.

Equity Suits Filed

Two equity suits have been filed in Allegany County Circuit Court. The bills of complaint were titled Levi A. Smith vs. Grace I. Smith and Mary Loretta Ridgeley vs. Merritt A. Ridgeley.

which does not vaporize until it reaches 350 degrees.

The incinerator is planned to dispose of waste B&O oil which the city will not allow to enter sewage lines since it interferes with the operation of the treatment plant.

Jury Selected In Showalter Murder Trial

A petit jury of seven men and five women was selected yesterday in Bedford County Court to begin hearing testimony this morning in the trial of William Showalter, 40, of Clearville, who is charged with murder in the November 14 fatal stabbing of his wife, Mrs. Hilda Showalter, 35.

The commonwealth will begin its case this morning at 9:30 with William Van Horn Jr. prosecuting attorney for the county.

Judge Richard C. Snyder is on the bench.

This is the first murder case in about 14 years to be heard in the Bedford County court. It is also the first time women have served a petit jury to hear a case of this nature.

Two alternate jurors, a man and a woman, were also selected yesterday. William H. Snyder of Everett and Charles M. Koontz, of Bedford, are counsel for the defendant.

Police said that after stabbing his wife and setting fire to their home on November 14, Showalter was admitted to Bedford County Memorial Hospital when he presumably attempted to take his life.

Co-Op Meeting Set Feb. 12 At Burlington

Mid-Year Reports Will Be Presented

BURLINGTON, W. Va. — Approximately 60 members of Southern States Cooperative's community advisory boards, directors of affiliated cooperatives and cooperative Service Agency managers from this region will attend a meeting February 12 at the Shriners old Store House here, beginning at 10:30 a. m.

There will be a total of 54 of these regional meetings held by Southern States over a six state area. The organization has over 360,000 farmer-members who live in Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, Kentucky, and Tennessee.

Following lunch there will be a general discussion period. Southern States district manager Houston Booth, of Belington, W. Va., is in charge of arrangements for the meeting and will also act as moderator of a panel discussion that will be held during the afternoon.

Clarence H. Shaw of Westminster, Md., a director of the cooperative, will preside at the meeting.

J. E. Givens of the cooperative's central offices in Richmond, Va., will present the mid-year report and report on how Southern States Keeps Up to Date.

Expecting to attend the meeting from the local area are:

Grayson D. Solomon, manager, Southern States Cumberland Cooperative, Cumberland, and Charles Cluse, manager, Cluse Feed and Supply Company, Lonaconing.

Floyd Buser, Albert Kinser, and Roy Twigg, all of Oldtown, Elmer Cluse and Howard Llewellyn, both of Midland, Bertus Beeman and Nelson Ward, both of Lonaconing; John Layton and Dewey Llewellyn, both of Barton.

Others to attend the meeting will be Granville Shumaker, of Keyser; Wilbur Perrin, of Flintstone; Clari Raines, of Ridgeley; and Harry H. Delbrook, of Mt. Savage.

Church Women Plan Session

LONACONING — Ladies Auxiliary of Pentecostal Holiness Church held a business meeting at the parsonage, 19 Jackson Street.

Mrs. Paul Poland, presided. Plans were made for the Quarterly Conference to be held at the church on Thursday, February 20.

Rev. Rodney Casteel will be guest speaker and Miss Ethel Henry of Cumberland, regional director, will be in charge.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Poland and Mrs. Charlotte Gardner. Attending were Mrs. Ora Robertson, Mrs. Ethel Lease, Mrs. Ella Ray Fazenbaker, Miss Janet Poland and Glen Whiteman.

Births Announced At Miners Hospital

FROSTBURG — Four births have been announced at Miners Hospital:

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Stowell, Mt. Savage, a daughter on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aldridge, RD 4, Cumberland, a son on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pifer, RD 3, Frostburg, a son Friday.

Church Starts Member Class

LONACONING — Rev. Carl E. Price, pastor of the First Methodist Church, has started a class for church membership. The class began with the study of the meaning of being a Christian and member of a church, and the backgrounds of the Methodist Church, last Sunday.

A change of meeting nights has been made by the Young Adult Fellowship. The Fourth Tuesday of each month is chosen so that church practice is not conflicting Tuesday, February 25, will be the next Young Adult Fellowship meeting.

West Virginia Scores 31st Straight Conference Win

Mountaineers Whip Indians In 82-68 Tilt

Top Rated College Quint Posts 18th Win Of Campaign

MORGANTOWN, Feb. 10 (AP)—West Virginia gave a convincing demonstration here tonight of the basketball prowess that has made it the nation's No. 11 team by overpowering William and Mary for a second time this season by a score of 82-68.

The 31st straight Southern Conference victory for the Mountaineers and the 18th without a loss this season opened their overall record to 18-1.

After lagging 7-6 at the opening of the game, West Virginia put on a 10-point, one-minute two-second burst that took it up to a 16-7 lead. It stayed ahead until William and Mary brought off the first tie at 24-24, then captured the lead with 26-24.

A tie at 26-26 was broken by Ronnie Retton's jump shot and, with seven minutes and 18 seconds left in the first half West Virginia took the lead for keeps at 28-26, building it to 43-30 by the half.

Five Mountaineer regulars shot into the double figures, with Jerry West high for the team with 13.

But Don Engelken took game scoring honors for William and Mary as its overall season record dropped to 8-11 and its conference count to 4-7 by shooting for a total of 18 points.

Iowa Beaten, 90-84, By Michigan State

EAST LANSING, Mich., Feb. 10 (AP)—Led by three steady scorers and helped by the homecourt advantage, Michigan State trounced Iowa 90-84 in a Big Ten basketball game here tonight.

MSU kept its lead throughout the game. Several times it was as much as 10 points. Iowa came close in the second half when the Hawks twice drew to within one point of overhaul—the Spartans. State now has a 5-3 conference record. Iowa dropped back in the standings with a 4-4 record.

Powering the MSU attack were Larry Hedden with 27 points, John Green with 26 and Jack Quiggle with 25.

Dave Gunther was high man for Iowa with 30 points.

Morgan To Get Look
ATLANTA (AP)—Joe Morgan, rookie of the year in the Southern Assn. will get a thorough look as a shortstop when the Milwaukee Braves hold their spring training sessions at Bradenton, Fla. With Johnny Logan still counted on to handle the shortstop for the world champion Braves, Morgan probably will be moved to Triple A at Wichita.

Morgan, 27, now resides in Walpole, Mass. He began his professional career with Hartford, Conn., in 1952. Last year he led Atlanta, Southern Assn., pennant winner, in hitting with .335. His mark was topped only by Stan Palys who hit .359 for Nashville. Palys is getting another chance with Cincinnati this spring.

Everybody gets in the act

Calisthenics

Al Lang, who started it all

Pep talk by a manager

HERE WE GO AGAIN—It's just about that time—spring training—and the major league clubs already are beginning to assemble in the land of the sun. Twelve clubs, including the Los Angeles Dodgers, remain in Florida with four, including the San Francisco Giants, based in Arizona. Some say spring training goes back to 1856 when Harry Wright took his Phillies to Charleston, S. C., to train. The real impetus to Florida camps came when Al Lang, known as the "ambassador of baseball," accented the state and particularly St. Petersburg as a fine place to train baseball teams. St. Pete, home of the Yanks and Cards, has one of the finest parks, and it is appropriately named "Al Lang Field."

SS. Peter and Paul eagles took over the leadership of the Catholic Youth Basketball League last night by upsetting St. Patrick's on SS. Peter & Paul court by the score of 17-11.

The score was the lowest recorded in the circuit this season. St. Patrick's was limited to two field goals—one in each half.

John Sloan was the game's high scorer with eight points. Bill Humberson turned in a nice job of rebounding for the winners.

Mike Long scored 14 goals and 28 points in leading St. Mary's to a 60-43 victory over St. Peter's of Westernport in a game played on St. Mary's court.

Long took over the league scoring lead with a total of 242 points while Billy Davis of St. Peter's, who scored 17 points in last night's game, dropped into second place with a total of 231.

Donnie Harden collected 21 points for the Gaels in last night's contest. Rebar, St. Peter's center, chalked up 14 markers. The lineups:

Tech Whips LSU

ATLANTA, Feb. 10 (AP)—Georgia Tech, with an 88-61 basketball victory over Louisiana State tonight, dropped the Tigers deeper into the Southeastern Conference cellar.

The Yellow Jackets conference record now stands at 7-3 and 14-8 for all games. LSU's record is 1-8 and 5-15 respectively.

Tech led 41-31 at the half and midway of the second stanza turned the game into a rout. With about three minutes remaining Tech had a commanding 87-53 lead.

Falcons Win, 83-67

SALEM, W. Va., Feb. 10 (AP)—Fairmont won its 12th consecutive basketball game tonight by inflicting an 83-67 defeat on Salem.

The State Conference game saw Harry Hall of Fairmont, whose record rose to 15-4, top the scoring with 29 points. Edsl Burkhammer contributed 26 to the doomed cause of Salem (5-14).

Jimmy Martinez, Ballarin Fight Draw In Paris

PARIS, Feb. 10 (AP)—Jimmy Martinez of Phoenix, Ariz., and Germinal Ballarin of France fought to a draw in a 10-round middleweight bout at the Paris Sports Palace tonight. Each weighed 160½.

Ted Wright, 146, Detroit, won an unpopular decision over Sauveur Chiocca, 174½, France, in a 10-round semifinal.

Martinez built up a lead in the middle rounds but was hurt in the ninth round and in trouble in the 10th from Ballarin's body attack.

Ballarin, rated as France's No. 2 middleweight, fought without the handlebar mustache that he wore in his American bouts last year. Although Ballarin appeared the stronger, Martinez carefully kept him at long range through the first eight rounds.

There were no knockdowns but each man was cut.

The Associated Press scorecard had Martinez ahead 5-4-1.

Wright, a lean boxer with a long reach, kept Chiocca moving back during most of their match.

The crowd of about 7,000 whistled and booed the decision, apparently feeling Chiocca should have been given a draw.

Crawford Gets Nod

NEW YORK, Feb. 10 (AP)—Favored Mickey Crawford, of Saginaw, Mich., finished strong tonight to earn a unanimous 10-round decision over Tex Gonzales of East Orange, N. J., at St. Nicholas Arena.

Crawford weighed 152, Gonzalez 155.

Campy's Lower Limbs Still Are Paralyzed

GLEN COVE, N. Y., Feb. 10 (AP)—Roy Campanella was reported in "good spirits" and in satisfactory condition today but there still is no improvement in the paralysis of his lower limbs.

The Glen Cove Hospital said the Dodge catcher, who suffered a broken neck in an automobile accident Jan. 28, has satisfactory temperature and is eating and resting well, but no change has been noted in his sense of feeling from the chest down.

Volts Beat Rebels

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 10 (AP)—Tennessee fought off a late rally by Mississippi tonight to defeat the Rebels 68-63 in a Southeastern Conference basketball game.

Steelers Sign Syracuse End

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 10 (AP)—The National Football League's Pittsburgh Steelers announced today they have signed Dick Lasse, a 6-2, 220-pound end from Syracuse University.

At the same time the Steelers said another draft choice, tackle Doyle Jennings of Oklahoma, apparently has decided to sign with a Canadian club.

Lasse was the Steelers' recent No. 3 draft choice.

Wilt Handcuffed

BOULDER, Colo., Feb. 10 (AP)—Kansas' Wilt Chamberlain, who came to town with a 32.8 points per game average, was held to six points tonight by Colorado but the Kansas escaped with a 60-51 Big Eight Conference basketball victory.

Minor Leagues Shrink To 25 For This Year

Decline 58 Per Cent From 59 High In 1949

By BEN OLAN

NEW YORK, Feb. 10 (AP)—Baseball's minor leagues, facing a bitter battle for survival, probably will go to the post with only 25 member circuits this season.

This will represent a decline of 58 per cent from the peak of 59 leagues in 1949.

An Associated Press survey disclosed today that since the close of last season three leagues have folded, another likely will collapse, one more had dwindled from eight to six clubs and four other leagues still are seeking franchises.

On the brighter side, one new circuit has been formed and three have expanded.

Leagues Disband
Definitely out of the picture are the Class B. Big State League, the Class C. Evangeline League and the Class D. Sooner State League. The Class B. Southwestern League probably will not operate.

Columbus, Ga., and Columbia, S.C., have dropped out of the South Atlantic League (A) making it a six-club organization. The Western, another Class A league, may lose Colorado Springs, Colo., and Sioux City, Iowa. Decisions on both franchises are expected this week-end.

The leagues looking for new cities are: Class C. Arizona-Mexico (for Phoenix, Ariz., which moved to Pacific Coast); Class C. Pioneer (for Salt Lake City, also in PCL); Class D. Midwest League (for Mattoon, Ill.); and the Class D. Florida State (for Leesburg, Fla.).

Several other circuits have successfully found replacements for lost franchises. The Pacific Coast league grabbed Phoenix, Spokane and Salt Lake City when the Giants and Dodgers moved west. The three new sites replaced San Francisco, Los Angeles and Hollywood.

Corpus Christi and Victoria, both Texas cities, took over for Oklahoma City and Shreveport, La., in the Class AA Texas League. Rochester, Minn., Green Bay, Wis., and Appleton, Wis., replaced Evansville, Ind., Keokuk, Iowa, and Peoria, Ill., in the Class B. Three Eye League. Geneva, N.Y., and (Continued on Page 16)

970 Played With Bucs

Ever since the Pittsburgh Pirates were organized way back in 1887, close to 1,000 players have worn Buc spangles. From '87 through the 1957 campaign, exactly 970 players have played in at least one game for the Pirates, while the club has had 14 non-playing managers. The other 13 pilots were playing-managers.

Centre Street And Emmanuel Register Wins

Salvation Army, Central Beaten

Centre Street Methodist and Emmanuel Methodist took over the leadership in the second flight race of the Sunday School Basketball League by scoring their third straight wins yesterday on the YMCA court.

Centre Street defeated the Salvation Army Citadel, 36-21, and Emmanuel whipped Central Methodist, 41-19.

Shaffer and Sharpless accounted for 28 points for Centre Street. Crabtree was the top scorer for Emmanuel Methodist with 21 tallies, while Allison head Central Methodist with ten.

St. Mary's will play Emmanuel Episcopal today at 6 p. m. at the "Y" lineups:

Fort Hill Dux Team Captures Lead In League

Beats Hawks, 3-0, LaSalle Wins, 2-1

BI-STATE LEAGUE

School	W	L	Pct.
Fort Hill	11	7	.611
LaSalle	10	8	.556
Allegany	9	9	.500
Ridgeley	6	12	.333

Fort Hill High School took a one-game lead in the Bi-State Interscholastic Bowling League yesterday by sweeping three games from Ridgeley High School on the Diamond alleys while LaSalle was winning a pair from Allegany on the Savoy lanes.

LaSalle, Fort Hill and Allegany were tied for first place prior to yesterday's matches with 8-7 records.

Fort Hill toppled 2,241 pins to Ridgeley's 1,989.

Mike Holcomb sparked the Fort Hill attack with high set of 481 and high game of 177. Ed Dawson posted a 406 and Rodney Smith had a 168 game. Bill Kincaid was Ridgeley's high man with a set of 358 and a game of 145. Dave Dawson was runner-up with a 340 and 123.

LaSalle spilled a total of 2,161 pins against Allegany's 2,112.

Tom Felten's 466 and 163 was high for the Explorers while Will topped Allegany with 157 and 435.

Piedmont High Horse Will Shoot For Double Title

Leading PVC Quint To Host Ft. Ashby Hi

Mineral Co. Crown Also Goal As Lions Angle For 14 In Row

Piedmont High School gets an opportunity to wrap a pair of titles tonight when it hosts the Fort Ashby High School Eagles in Piedmont.

Coach William "Huck" Miers' Lions have bagged eleven consecutive victories in the Potomac Valley Conference and they can annex the crown in that circuit for the fourth time in six years if they dispose of Fort Ashby. Coach Quentin Sayers' Eagles were jolted on their home court by Piedmont earlier in the campaign by the score of 69-51. A week later Fort Ashby was spilled at home by Keyser, 63-56. Since that game the Eagles have reeled off seven wins in a row at the expense of West Virginia Deaf, twice, Romney, Bruce, Beall, Paw Paw and Elk Garden.

Eagles Trail By Two

Fort Ashby occupies the runner-up spot in the P. V. C. with 10 wins and three losses and the Eagles could keep their title hopes alive by winning tonight. Since 14 games is the maximum in the championship race it means that Fort Ashby, if victorious tonight, must await the outcome of Piedmont's 13th game with Southern or 14th game at Keyser. Piedmont, however, would have to do a complete collapse now to blow the title and that's unlikely.

The second title sought by Miers' outfit tonight is in the Mineral County circuit. Piedmont leads that loop with 6-0 and needs only one win in its two remaining games to sew it up. Fort Ashby is in second place with 3-2, followed by Ridgeley (3-4), Keyser (2-4) and Elk Garden (1-5).

Piedmont will be going for its 14th consecutive win tonight. The Lions have gone undefeated since December 10 when they suffered their only loss in 16 starts.

Keyser At Moorefield

In other P. V. C. tilts tonight, Franklin visits Mathias, Keyser invades Moorefield. Paw Paw is at the West Virginia School for the Deaf and Romney hosts the Petersburg High Vikings.

Four other conference teams play non-league games. Wardensville High's Warriors entertain Harpers Ferry. Capon Bridge plays at Oldtown. Southern of Maryland hosts Mountaineer High of Thomas and Berkeley Springs tests Bob Wolford's Hancock High floormen at Hancock.

Western Maryland's 1,664 Deer Kills Is 38 Pct. Of State Bag

Thirty-eight per cent or 1,664 of the 4,404 deer slain by hunters in Maryland last year were bagged in Garrett, Allegany and Washington counties, comprising Region No. 1.

The latest official figures provided by the Game and Inland Fish Commission show that firearms hunters killed 698 bucks in Garrett county. A total of 838 deer of both sexes fell in Allegany county. Firearms hunters took 623 white bow and arrow hunters bagged 15. Washington county's total was 328-323 being brought down by special, including 34 taken by gunfire permission at the Woodmont Rod and Gun Club at Hancock, while five were claimed by archers.

At Aberdeen Proving Grounds 1,034 deer of both sexes were slain while the bag at the U. S. Army Chemical Warfare Center, Edgewood, was 123.

Bow and arrow hunters accounted for 117 deer in the state. The 1957 kill by counties:

Brito To Remain With Washington

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—Defensive end Gene Brito, the fan's favorite at Griffith Stadium, decided today to play one more season with the Washington Redskins. Redskins President George Preston Marshall set off an ovation when he announced Brito's decision at a Washington Touchdown Club luncheon honoring the all pro end.

Brito, who has a grandstand following seldom attained by defensive players, flew from his West Covina, Calif., home for contract talks and to receive a trophy, a watch and a portable TV as the outstanding Redskin for 1957.

The 32-year-old graduate of Loyola in Los Angeles has been with the Washington club since 1951 except for one season in Canada. Marshall said he signed the same contract as last year.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank all who were so kind and thoughtful during the bereavement of our beloved mother, Mrs. Mary Nolan Piccini. We thank our friends and neighbors for their assistance, those who sent flowers and cards, loaned cars, the pallbearers, and those who helped at the services. Signed THE FAMILY

Garrett County Weather Eases; Roads Are Open

Schools Will Be Closed Today

Buffeted by wind and snow for several weeks in one of the worst winters experienced by Western Maryland residents, Garrett Countyans have begun to fight their way clear in their battle with the elements.

State Roads Commission officials said main highways throughout the westernmost county are now open to two-way traffic although still wet and icy in spots. Some county roads are yet under drifts, however.

The blizzard-like winds which swirled the snow in heavy clouds and caused visibility to be practically nil died down to a whisper yesterday.

Clear skies and a crisp, cold day yesterday greeted SRC crews which have been working around the clock to free the county's roads of their white blanket.

Brief flurries before noon stirred the heavy drifts of snow and partially blocked some of the main highway arteries in the county. The winds, moderating considerably, still caused some drifts last night.

Guardsmen Help

Road crews, augmented by National Guardsmen with bulldozers from Company C, the Maryland National Guard unit in Oakland, spent the day and most of last night widening traffic lanes in the highways.

SRC officials said the big rotary plow based at Oakland worked during the night west of Little Savage Mountain toward Grantsville. The county had three truck crews out and two auto patrol riggers checking the side roads.

Willard Hawkins, superintendent of schools in Garrett County, said some schools were open yesterday with a high rate of absenteeism due to the county roads being drifted shut. However, with many county roads still closed by drifts the schools will close today.

Garrett temperatures, ranging from nine degrees below zero at Big Savage to seven degrees above at Oakland and Accident, were expected to drop to zero again overnight.

Other low temperatures yesterday were New Germany, six below; Thomas, W. Va., and Deal, Pa., four below; Frostburg, zero; and LaVale, three above. Accident and Oakland, three below.

East of Frostburg the snow was lighter and there is no travel problem.

Six Above In City

Cumberland yesterday had a low of six above zero and the mercury rose to a high of 17 during the day. There has been little snow in the Cumberland area for the past several days.

Although Allegany County is in the throes of one of its coldest winters in some time, the temperatures and snowfall do not compare with the most severe winters recorded here.

January had 6.2 inches of snow with two days with the mercury under 10 above zero. The first 10 days of this month have recorded 2.8 inches of snow with two days under 10 above. The month of January was two degrees colder than the normal average for the month. December of last year had 9.5 inches of snow.

This compares with the winter of 1917-18 when December of that period had 10 inches of snow, seven days with the mercury under 10 above zero and one day when it dipped to five below.

37 Inches In 1918

January of 1918 had 37 inches of snow, one day 11 below zero, one day six below; one day three below; two days one below; and eight days under 10 above.

February of 1918 had an additional two inches of snow, three days under 10 above and one day when the temperature reached four below.

Another cold winter, 1935-36, saw January with 16.7 inches of snow and one day at eight below, one day at five below, one day at three below; three days at one below; and four days under 10 above zero.

February of 1936 had 8.5 inches of snow, one day at two below, one day at one below; and six days under 10 above.

Shumakers' Champion Yields 101 Lbs. Butterfat

For the first time in eight months, the January butterfat champion of the Potomac Valley Dairy Herd Improvement Association produced more than 100 pounds of butterfat.

The last butterfat of more than 100 pounds occurred last May when the monthly champion recorded 107 pounds. That was the only 1957 monthly winner above 100 pounds.

No. 61, a grade Holstein owned by Shumaker Brothers of Rawlings was the January champion with 101 pounds of butterfat in 2,670 pounds of milk, according to the report of Wheeler W. Arnold and Harry E. Miller, supervisors.

Not only did Shumaker Brothers have the monthly leader, they also had more cows on the select list of the 11 top producers in the association with three. They had a second in a three-way tie for seventh place and a

COL. F. E. POWELL

Col. Powell Succumbs In Washington

Civic Leader Was Cresap Descendant

Col. Frank Egerton Powell, 75, of 12 North Smallwood Street, retired Army officer and a Cumberland civic leader for many years, died yesterday at 3:55 p.m. at Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, where he had been a patient for about four weeks.

He had recently undergone surgery at the hospital and had been in ill health for some time.

Col. Powell was a native of Cumberland, born here in 1873, a son of the late Walter Powell and Mary Florence (Dart) Powell. He was married in 1911 to the former Ruth Cochrane, who survives.

A member of the Emmanuel Episcopal Church, Col. Powell also belonged to Henry Hart Post 1411, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and to Fort Cumberland Post 13, American Legion.

Outstanding Athlete

He was an outstanding athlete in his youth and won trophies in tennis and swimming, besides being an excellent horseman.

His Army service took him to Panama, Puerto Rico, Governor's Island, Fort Holabird, Fort Hancock and to various European assignments. He was in charge of an Army detail that was first on the scene at Lakehurst, N.J., when the Hindenburg zeppelin exploded and burned. At one of his military posts Mrs. Powell and he were in a bridge club that included the then Major Dwight D. Eisenhower and Mrs. Eisenhower.

A descendant of Col. Thomas Cresap, Col. Powell played a leading role in the affairs of the Cresap Society, was a member of the advisory board and a contributor to the Cresap Society Bulletin, a monthly publication printed in Canton, Miss.

During much of his military career, Col. Powell and his family resided at Cambridge, but shortly after his retirement they moved back to Cumberland. He and Mrs. Powell then purchased the home on North Smallwood Street.

Was Bank Director

Col. Powell was a director of the First National Bank. His death follows by less than two days the death of the bank's board chairman, Isaac Hirsch.

As chairman of the Fort Cumberland Bicentennial Committee in 1955, Col. Powell contributed notably to the success of that celebration.

Four weeks ago he entered Walter Reed Hospital for a major operation. He rallied from the long and delicate surgery, but complications gradually weakened him and his condition became critical yesterday, several hours before his death.

Besides his widow, Col. Powell is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Helen Wise, at home; and two brothers, Garland W. Powell, Gainesville, Fla.; and Virgil C. Powell, Cumberland; and a sister, Mrs. Olive Shirey, also of Cumberland.

The body will be returned to the George Funeral Home here today and then will be taken to the family residence on Smallwood Street Wednesday morning. The family requests that flowers be omitted.

Union Will Meet

Local 568, Iron Workers Union, will meet Saturday at 8 p.m. in the Allegany Labor Temple.

JAMES E. KENNY

James E. Kenny Funeral Mass Set Thursday

Westernport Grocer Active In Politics

A requiem mass for James Estel Kenny, 61, of 154 Church Street, Westernport, well-known in area political circles, who died suddenly Monday morning, will be celebrated Thursday at 9:30 a.m. in St. Peter's Catholic Church.

Interment will be in the parish cemetery. The body is at the Fredrick Funeral Home in Piedmont and will be taken to the residence today at 2 p.m.

The rosary will be recited at the home tomorrow at 8 p.m. Chief Justice Haney General Assembly, Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus will act as an honor guard at the funeral service.

Mr. Kenny, a member of the Democratic State Central Committee, died in his grocery market on Main Street in Westernport. Death was believed due to a heart attack.

A native of Elk Garden, Mr. Kenny had operated the Sanitary Market in Westernport for the past 33 years.

He was a former member of the Allegany County Board of Election Supervisors, a former member of the Allegany County Board of Alcoholic Beverages License Commissioners, a veteran of World War I, past commander of Victory Post 155, American Legion of Westernport, and a past commander of Mountain District, American Legion, and a director of the First National Bank of Piedmont.

Mr. Kenny was a member of St. Peter's Catholic Church, Westernport, Council 685, Knights of Columbus of Piedmont, and Chief Justice Toney General Assembly, Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus.

He was a graduate of Potomac State College of Keyser, and was married on December 26, 1925 to the former Geraldine Moffett of Oakland.

He was a son of the late John and Mary Veronica (Brogan) Kenny.

Besides his widow, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Harold Moran, Westernport, and Miss Martha Ann Kenny, at home; three sons, James E. Jr., William M. and Patrick J. Kenny, all at home; a sister, Mrs. Mae White, Canton, Ohio.

He is also survived by five brothers, Frank Kenny, Canton, Richard and Bernard Kenny, both of Westernport; John Kenny, Elk Garden, and Thomas Kenny, Mt. Savage, and four grandchildren.

Condemnation Suit Filed

A condemnation suit for property needed on the west slope of Polish Mountain for the new U.S. Route 40 down the side of the mountain was filed yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court by the State Roads Commission against Ruland T. Gilson and Myrtle E. Gilson.

Sought from the Gilsons are 4 acre for the road right-of-way and .09 for slope and drainage easements.

Deposited with the condemnation suit by Attorney Matthew J. Mullaney was a check for $2,210, which the SRC contends is a reasonable price for the land sought.

Back on December 3, the County Board of Property Review awarded the Gilsons $2,827.50 for their condemned property. Apparently, the SRC is appealing this decision although the land acquisition docket at the Court House bears no notation of any appeal.

$4 Million Cut In State Budget Is Lined Up

Most Pay Raises Would Be Deferred

ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 10 (AP)—Finance committees of the Maryland Legislature were reported tonight to have already lined up four million of the seven-million dollar goal they have set for trimming Gov. McKeldin's budget.

Sources in the House Ways and Means and Senate Finance Committees said all but a small amount of the $3,300,000 proposed for a state employee pay raise will probably go by the boards in this year of tight revenue.

That, coupled with a million dollars they hope to save by having special-fund agencies pay retirement costs of their employees, would put them well on the road toward their goal.

May Defer Raises

"The raises are just going to have to be put off a year in view of the budget picture," said one member of the Ways and Means Committee. A number of other delegates and senators seemed to be feeling the same way.

The employee pay raise was one of the major increases recommended by Gov. McKeldin in his 386-million dollar budget.

Of this amount, 183 million is in general funds which come from such general taxes as those on sales and income. The rest is special funds, supported by special taxes as those on gasoline and motor vehicles, and federal funds. The Legislature can't cut special or federal funds.

Will Screen Budget

This is the main reason behind an emergency bill sponsored by Chairman Turnbull and Boone of the finance groups to make the special agencies pay retirement costs of their employees. It would relieve the general fund of approximately one million dollars—$500,000 for the current fiscal year and a similar amount in the year which begins July 1—and would thus lessen the tax problem faced by the Legislature.

Gov. McKeldin has proposed increasing the sales and income taxes 50 per cent each in order to meet an expected gap of 39 million dollars between expected general fund revenues and proposed spending.

The committees begin a department-by-department screening of the budget tomorrow to see where else they can reduce the need for revenue.

Driver Fined In Motor Case

A 35-year-old Cumberland man was fined $100 and costs and received a suspended 60-day jail sentence yesterday when he was found guilty in Trial Magistrate Court on two motor vehicle violations.

William Margin Shingleton Bowman's Addition, was charged with two counts of failure to stop and identify himself after his car had struck two other automobiles on U. S. 220 at Dingle Hill February 3.

The defendant was traveling toward Cumberland when his vehicle struck cars operated by Randolph P. Tyler and Harry Shirey Jr., both of whom were driving south.

Shingleton testified that he went to sleep at the wheel of his car, thought he had struck an embankment, and did not realize he had collided with two other automobiles. He claimed his car was at the bottom of the hill when he awoke.

Trooper Willis Foreman of the Maryland State Police investigated and the hearing was held yesterday before Magistrate J. Milton Dick.

Clinics Planned

The Health Department will hold child health clinics Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. in Westernport; Thursday at 9:30 a.m. in Frostburg and Lonaconing and Friday at 9:30 a.m. in Corriganville and Potomac Park and 10 a.m. in Midland.

Scholarship Tests Taken By 36 Pupils

Seven Highest Will Get Awards

Twenty-four girls and 12 boys from Allegany County public and Catholic high schools took the 1958-59 Maryland teacher education scholarship examination Saturday at Allegany High School, according to Assistant Superintendent of Schools Richard T. Rizer, who conducted the test.

The tests, which were completed in three hours, will be sent to Science Research Associates, McHenry, Ill., for machine scoring. Mr. Rizer said.

Results of the test will be sent to the State Department of Education in Baltimore and the seven students with the highest grades on the test first will be offered the scholarships. If any of the first seven decline to accept the scholarships, those ranking next below the top seven will be offered the scholarships.

The scholarships, worth $500 a year for four years, may be used at any of 13 designated non-public colleges in Maryland.

John R. Snyder, guidance director at Allegany High School, assisted Mr. Rizer in giving the test.

The following took the test:

Susan Elizabeth Dye, Donna Marie Lease, Linda Faye Schwalm, Helen Louise Wanless and Judith Ann Scribner, all of Allegany; Sally Layman, Patricia Lowry, Gene Charles Sager and Michael Patrick Fabbri, all of Beall High School, Frostburg; Carol E. Eaton, Charles P. Kazle, Ona M. Kile, Donald E. Combs, James M. Smith and Robert A. Willison, all of Bruce High School, Westernport; Nancy Carol Belt, Fort Hill High School; Dale Alan Geary, Mt. Savage High School; Sally Ann Kelly, Gerald Cecil Llewellyn, Judy Ann Marshall and James Edward Moffatt, all of Valley High School, Lonaconing.

Also, Mary J. Bolt and Mary Clare McNamee, both of Ursuline Academy; Concetta Ann Brehm, Patricia Marie Griffin, Carolyn Agnes Keech, Patricia Louise Pisaneschi, Donna Frances Swartley and Linda Katherine Travis, all of St. Mary's High School; Helen C. O'Rourke and Dorothea Stine, both of St. Peter's High School, Westernport; Thomas Conrad Felten, Joseph Edward McDade and John Michael Keating, all of LaSalle High School; Joyce Kathryn Mullan and Mary Alice Thompson, both of Catholic Girls Central High School.

Northern Lights Visible Last Night Over Cumberland

The aurora borealis or northern lights presented a beautiful sight in northern skies over Cumberland last night.

The luminous phenomenon, seen to best advantage in the arctic regions, was visible in hues of green, blue, red and yellow, according to a number of reports received at the Times-News office.

Robert R. Golden, superintendent of Constitution Park and local weather observer, said he caught a good glimpse of the lights from his home.

A large section of the northern skies from the Narrows to Martins Mountain displayed the unusual lighting effect which, according to Mr. Golden, usually occurs about once a year during February.

Fletcher, New Board Approved

ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 10 (AP)—The new Maryland Workmen's Compensation Board was confirmed tonight by the State Senate.

The confirmation, announced behind closed doors of the full Senate, was made public after the senators adjourned and copies of their official notice was released to the press.

The confirmed appointees also included Robert B. Kimble, director of the new Department of Employment Security. Like three members of the new compensation board, he had been serving as head of the agency which preceded his new one, the Employment Security Board.

Approved for the new compensation board were Miss Helen Elizabeth Brown, to a nine-year term; Daniel T. Doherty, to a 10-year term, and Lester H. Crowther, to an eight-year term. All had served on the State Industrial Accident Commission, predecessor of the Workmen's Compensation Board, and were sworn in Feb. 1 to their new posts.

Also confirmed were Meyer M. Cardin, Baltimore City chief traffic court magistrate, who will be chairman of the compensation agency, and Paul M. Fletcher, Allegany County state's attorney. Cardin is expected to be sworn in Wednesday and Fletcher in about two weeks.

Corriganville Group To Meet

The Corriganville Improvement Association will meet at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the Fire Hall at which time officers will be nominated and elected.

There also will be the third and final reading of the by-laws and their approval. The street lighting committee also will submit its report to the association.

President Gordon Werner urges all residents of Corriganville to attend tonight's important meeting.

Bill Would Ban State Or Local Advertising Tax

Other Measure To Bar River Gambling

By HERB THOMPSON
ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 10 (AP)—Bills to outlaw gambling in state waters and exempt advertising from state or local taxation were introduced tonight in the Maryland Legislature.

The gambling bill, aimed at driving gaming ships and piers out of business on the Potomac River, was an administration measure promised earlier by Gov. McKeldin to satisfy Virginia complaints.

It was sponsored by Sen. Phoebus (R-Somerset) minority floor leader of the State Senate.

The advertising tax bill was introduced by Senate President Louis Goldstein (D-Calvert) and in the House by Speaker John C. Luber (D-Balto 5th). It followed a weekend announcement by Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro of Baltimore that the city would lift its new and highly controversial advertising tax next Jan. 1.

The Goldstein bill, drafted by the Advertising Council of Baltimore, would insure that a similar tax doesn't go back on anywhere in the state. It exempts from state or local taxation any advertising in newspapers, on radio or television, billboards or other media.

McKeldin Would Sign

Gov. McKeldin said he will probably sign it if enacted but considers it "quite meaningless" in view of Mayor D'Alesandro's decision to repeal it.

"Revenue on an advertising tax would not be sufficient to induce its adoption by any civil division of Maryland except Baltimore City," McKeldin said.

"I am confident that no future mayor would seek its reenactment," added the governor, who is expected to run for mayor of Baltimore next year.

"But since the mayor and his associates apparently want legislative protection against themselves, I suppose I will go along—unless, of course, some presently unsuspected snakes find their way into the bill."

A "snake" is an apparently harmless or obscure provision in a bill which actually has a broader impact when read in its true light.

Would Rule Out Licenses

The Potomac River gambling bill is a step taken by McKeldin to eliminate what he considers an affront to Virginia authorities—selling liquor by-the-drink and permitting operation of slot machines at ships and piers just off the Virginia shore.

Such places are licensed by Charles and St. Mary's counties in Maryland, which border the Maryland-owned Potomac.

The administration bill just outlaws use of slot machines and makes no mention of whiskey sales. But McKeldin said in a speech to the Legislature when it opened last Wednesday that such places would not continue to flourish if the slots were removed.

He made it apply to all state waters in order to qualify it for the 30-day session of the General Assembly. He said he would have preferred dealing directly against Charles and St. Mary's counties but local legislation is not permitted at the short session designed mainly for the budget and tax program and other statewide problems.

Senior Citizens Plan Valentine Party

A Valentine mail box will be set up for a Valentine exchange by members of the club, which is sponsored by the City Recreation Department. A social will follow the program.

Courts To Close

Trial Magistrates Court and Juvenile Court will be closed Wednesday, Lincoln's birthday. February 12 is a state legal holiday.

Robertson Is Promoted To Asheville SS Office

James E. Robertson, who has been district manager of the Social Security Board here since April of 1953 has been promoted to district manager of the SS at Asheville, N. C.

Succeeding Robertson here is S. Leigh Wolfe, who came here from Fayetteville, N. C., where he was district manager.

Robertson has been a career employee, having joined the Social Security Board in July 1938 at Baltimore. From 1932 to 1938 Robertson resided in Cumberland and is a graduate of Allegany High School.

A veteran of World War II, he served in the Air Force. He has been active in church and community activities and participated in the organization of the Civitan Club in Cumberland.

Robertson is married and the father of three children. He and his family left for Asheville yesterday.

Wolfe, a native of Baltimore, graduated from the University of Maryland in 1950 with a B.A. degree and majoring in sociology and government. He is a veteran of three years service during World War II.

Previously he has served with the Social Security Board in Wheeling, W. Va., and Norfolk, Va. In 1956 he was one of two employees, in a seven-state area selected for supervisory training at the central office of the Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance of Social Security.

Wolfe is married and has three children. His family expects to move here in the near future.
